Dear Aunt Lucy,

I have arrived in London

I managed to cross a wall (pneuh!) (few!) in a boat which brought me all the here.

London is very busy but I found the Brooks. They are funny. They are very nice and my name is Paddington.

I felt very worried because I thought I would go to prison. I thought my Marmalade would help him out. They promised to give me marmalade on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday. But on Sunday I got honey. When I met them I bowed and dressed politely.

Yours sincerely Paddington
