L.I. To write a new ending for 'The Clock Tower'.

Watch the film again and talk about the settings you described yesterday.

How could the ending be changed?

What ideas do you have which would alter the story.

You are to write your own ending for 'The Clock Tower'.

Make sure it is no more than one page and think about these things;

What could happen to the girl?

How will you link it to the clock tower?

Would your ending make sense with the original start of the story?

I am looking forward to reading these endings.

Well done Willow Class.
